Ecce Homo. How Jesus felt as many deaths for as many that cried "CRUCIFY HIM."

All cried, "CRUCIFY HIM, CRUCIFY HIM". Not only all that were present, but all the absent past and future. And if someone did not say it with words, He said it with deeds, because there was not a single one who wanted Jesus alive. Others confirmed it with silence. This cry of death was the most sorrowful for Jesus. He felt himself crowned in pains and deaths, much more because He saw that each death did not carry life to each one. (Paraphrased from Volume 16).
