

Many are Called, Few are Chosen

In Your Will and with Your Love, I desire to gather all that You have created out of so much love for mankind, from the beginning of time until the end of time; all souls, all Angels and all Creation, substituting for any and all who would refuse to join me. I bring all Your Creatures and Creation before Your Most Holy and Majestic Throne, and prostrating ourselves, we proclaim our love, adoration, praise, and honor, to glorify You profoundly, pleading through these rounds for Your Kingdom to come:

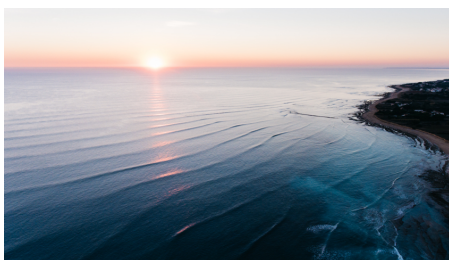

- ✚ In the spiritual life of every soul
- ✚ In the breast of God where the spiritual life is conceived
- ✚ In the Blood, the Love, and the Breath of God that forms this life
- ✚ In the act of Jesus who nourishes this life at His bosom and girds it with His grace
- ✚ In the progression of the spiritual life that moves to walking with the support of the truths
- ✚ In the desire of Jesus that wants to make a copy of Himself
- ✚ In Jesus' lament that extremely few are the souls who work with Him to make themselves a copy of Himself

Continuing in Thy Will and with Thy Love, we love you, we adore you, and we glorify you:

- ✚ In Luisa's question to Jesus, "Did my Jesus truly sleep...?"
- ✚ In Jesus' answer, "My sleep was brief, but I slept; and I didn't sleep for Myself... but for creatures."
- ✚ In the act of Jesus who extended His Humanity over the entire human family in order to give them rest.
- ✚ In all souls who experience perturbations, struggles and restlessness of the creature
- ✚ In all souls who fall into sin and who are left sad, those who are dominated by tyranny, by passions that they want to conquer and who remain upset; those who want to do good but who are struggling to do it
- ✚ In Jesus' desire to give all souls forgiveness for sin; victory over passions, strength in struggles; to everyone, peace and rest
- ✚ In the call of Jesus to all souls, one by one but those who come are few

In Thy Will, with Thy Love, we love you, we adore you, and we praise you:

- In the words of scripture, “It is all that is good, everything that is perfect, which is given us from above; it comes down from the Father of light”
- “By His own choice he made us his children by the message of the truth so that we should be a sort of first-fruits of all that he had created.”

The Jerusalem Bible

In Thy Will, with Thy Love, we love, adore, praise and glorify you:

- ❖ In the Catechism that teaches that the first work of grace of the Holy Spirit is conversion, effecting justification in accordance with Jesus’ proclamation at the beginning of the Gospel: “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”
- ❖ In the movements of grace, in which man turns toward God and away from sin, thus accepting forgiveness and righteousness from on high
- ❖ In the words and action that “Justification is not only the remission of sins, but also the sanctification and renewal of the interior man.”

Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1989

In Thy Will, with thy Love, we are so sorrowful, and we beg pardon:

- For our sins committed with the five senses – for mankind’s love of their own tastes, of sensible pleasures, of their egos, and of all natural satisfactions
- For our failure to seek to please Jesus alone
- For acts done without the right intention or in a holy way
- For creatures who are ungrateful for the benefits of the works of Creation, Redemption, and Sanctification and for the so many works of ours done in a merely human spirit.
- For all evil desires, affections, and tendencies
- For those who prefer the love of creatures to Jesus’ Love
