

Christ the King

In Your Will and with Your Love, I desire to gather all that You have created out of so much love for mankind, from the beginning of time until the end of time; all souls, all Angels and all Creation, substituting for any and all who would refuse to join me. I bring all Your Creatures and Creation before Your Most Holy and Majestic Throne, and prostrating ourselves, we proclaim our love, adoration, praise, and honor, to glorify You profoundly, pleading through these rounds for Your Kingdom to come:

- ✚ In the King who desires to fill His kingdom with happiness
- ✚ In the generosity of the King who puts at the disposal of His subjects a treasure worth millions, so that whoever wishes might partake of it
- ✚ In the sorrow of the King when he learns that his subjects neither take or appreciate his gifts
- ✚ In the goodness of the King who does not withdraw his millions but rather continues to make them available to all in the hope that later generations might accept the benefits his present subjects have rejected
- ✚ In the glory that the King might finally receive for the good he did for his kingdom

Continuing in Thy Will and with Thy Love, we love you, we adore you, and we glorify you:

- ✚ In the words of Jesus to Luisa, "... elevate yourself and take with you my Life, my Will, so that my Will on earth and my Will in Heaven can fuse together."
- ✚ In the Bosom of the Divinity where Luisa lives
- ✚ In the act of the Trinity enlarging her will as much as possible for a creature
- ✚ In the act of Luisa who descends to the earth taking the Power and prodigies of the Divine Will
- ✚ In all creatures who will come to know what it means to live in the Divine Will and come to know that it means living in the likeness of their Creator
- ✚ In the understanding that this is the beginning of the coming of Jesus' reign upon the earth and the ultimate fulfillment of His Will

Volume 14, July 10, 1922

In Thy Will, with Thy Love, we love you, we adore you, and we praise you:

- In the words of Scripture, “How great and wonderful are all your works Lord God Almighty; just and true are all your ways, King of nations. Who would not revere and praise your name, O Lord? You alone are holy, and all the pagans will come and adore you for the many acts of justice you have shown.”
- “... but the Lamb is the Lord of lords and the King of kings, and he will defeat them, and they will be defeated by his followers, the called, the chosen, the faithful.”
- “I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End. Happy are those who will have washed their robes clean, so that they will have the right to feed on the tree of life and can come through the gates into the city.”

The Jerusalem Bible

In Thy Will, with Thy Love, we love, adore, praise and glorify you:

- ❖ In the teaching of St Augustine that there will be true glory, where no one will be praised by mistake or flattery; true honor will not be refused to the worthy, nor granted to the unworthy
- ❖ In the time when true peace will reign, where no one will experience opposition either from self or others.
- ❖ In the time when God himself will be virtue’s reward; he gives virtue and has promised to give himself as the best and greatest reward that could exist...God himself will be the goal of our desires; we shall contemplate him without end, love him without surfeit, praise him without weariness.
- ❖ In this gift, this state, this act, like eternal life itself, that will assuredly be common to all

Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2550

In Thy Will, with thy Love, we are so sorrowful, and we beg pardon:

- When souls abandon Jesus due to trials and disappointments; due to lack of trust and courage; because souls feel they do not profit in holy things and do not care for Jesus
- For priests who say mass, confess and preach for love of gain and self-glory
