“Be Not Afraid”

LESSON 511

June 26, 2020

“Be Not Afraid.” Fear is not from God.
All souls have a mission and a duty assigned to them by God and must carry it out with courage and trust and not fear

Volume 14, September 20, 1922, Page 122, (whole chapter)

Jesus to Luisa, “Be Not Afraid.” Luisa’s greatest role is to live in the Divine Will.

Volume 11, May 18, 1915, Page 59, (whole chapter)

Jesus will have regard for the souls who live in His Will and places where they reside.

Volume 11, April 10, 1912, Page 10, (whole chapter)

The trusting soul is not fearful but is brave.

Volume 13, November 28, 1921, Page 43, (whole chapter)

The boat is the soul who lives in the Divine Will. Jesus is the Captain.

Volume 17, May 1, 1925, Page 104 – 106 inc.,

The mission of the Humanity of Jesus and the unique mission of Mary.

Volume 14, August 23, 1922, Page 110, (whole chapter)

The mission to live in the Divine Will is the greatest and most sublime. Be not Afraid.

Rounds

“Be Not Afraid”

- In sweet Jesus, who calms our fears and frights and tells us to have “courage.”
- In Luisa’s most sublime mission to be the little Daughter of the Divine Will.
- In the Captain of the boat who is Jesus, who guides it along its course.
- In the regard that Jesus has for souls living in His Divine Will and their places where they reside.
- In Adam, who was constituted the head of the generations, and in Luisa who was called as head of a special mission, more than a new Adam, to make known the Science of Sciences.
- In fearless souls who carry out the intentions of Jesus- to Glorify the Father, the salvation of all souls, the coming of the Kingdom.

In the Words of Jesus, “Be Not Afraid.”
