INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE LESSONS OF HOURS OF THE PASSION

- We begin the cenacle with the Prayer before the Hour which is found in the Passion Book.
- We have listed by a, b, c, some of the main events that are taking place in the particular Passion hour...in the story of that Hour.
- There are Volume references from the Writings that further explain the hour, or the lesson Jesus is teaching Luisa and now us. Some weeks there are more Volume references, some only a few as this is only a guide and as we find more, we will be continually adding to this list and you may find more on your own.
- We first read the a, b, c, etc, to see what is happening in the Hour and then read the Hour, or as much of the Hour as you can in your cenacle, time permitting. It is also good to read the Meditation at the end of the Hour.
- There is usually a virtue mentioned in the Meditation of the Hour and we have Volume References to further study that virtue.
- There are also KEY THEME WORDS included and volume references to study those for the week.

You may not finish all of this in your cenacle, but take the entire week to read a little of the Passion and the volume references each day, or as time permits. It is always good to prepare a few days before your cenacle and go over as much as possible in the cenacle. In the Volume references there may be only a few paragraphs referring to the Hour and sometimes only a sentence or two, but it is good to read the entire writing to get the whole meaning. Remember this is a study of Luisa's writings using the Passion Book, so don't skimp on your readings...read all the referenced Writings!

We close with the prayer of thanksgiving after the hour which is found in the Passion Book.

These lessons are coming to you from the desk of Linda Wawryk, British Columbia, Canada, who can be reached at: dwcenacle@live.com.

NOTE: Please remember that each and every Divine Will Cenacle must be conducted with order and decorum. It is a cenacle on the Greatest Gift that God can give a creature...the total Gift of His Real and True Life! The very Life of God, Himself! There is nothing more important! Only the writings of Luisa Piccarreta are to be discussed and absolutely NOTHING else.
