

The Our Father

In Your Will and with Your Love, I desire to gather all that You have created out of so much love for mankind, from the beginning of time until the end of time; all souls, all Angels and all Creation, substituting for any and all who would refuse to join me. I bring all Your Creatures and Creation before Your Most Holy and Majestic Throne, and prostrating ourselves, we proclaim our love, adoration, praise, and honor, to glorify You profoundly, pleading through these rounds for Your Kingdom to come:

- ✚ In the words of Jesus, “Our Father, on behalf of everyone, I beseech You for three kinds of daily bread”
- ✚ In the first daily bread which is the bread of the Divine Will
- ✚ In the Divine Will which is necessary at every moment
- ✚ In the second daily bread which is the Sacramental Jesus of the Holy Eucharist
- ✚ In the Eucharistic Bread which is necessary to nourish the soul
- ✚ In the third daily bread, which is ordinary bread and is necessary to nourish our bodies
- ✚ In the desire of Jesus for man to take the bread of the Supreme Will
- ✚ In the pain Jesus feels when He gives himself to souls sacramentally but is unable to give them fruits, blessings, or holiness because He cannot find in them the bread of the Divine Will
- ✚ In the act of Jesus giving blessings to souls according to their dispositions but not all the graces that He desires to give

Volume 15, May 2, 1923

Continuing in Thy Will and with Thy Love, we love you, we adore you, and we glorify you:

- ✚ In the desire of Jesus, who wants the fulfillment and completion of the “Fiat Voluntas Tua Sicut In Coelo Et In Terra”
- ✚ In the Our Father Prayer that has been uttered for many centuries, by so many generations
- ✚ In the fiat of Divine Will souls that contains the creative power
- ✚ In the fiat of Divine Will souls that rises at each instant and multiplies Itself in all
- ✚ In the Fiat of Mary
- ✚ In the Fiat of Luisa, Little Daughter of the Divine Will

Volume 12, January 17, 1921

In Thy Will, with Thy Love, we love you, we adore you, and we praise you:

- In the words of Scripture, “The time of waiting is over; at the time when the seventh angel is heard sounding his trumpet, God’s secret intention will be fulfilled, just as he announced in the Good News told to his servants the prophets”
- “Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; the first heaven and the first earth had disappeared now, and there was no longer any sea.”
- “I saw the holy city, and the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven...”

The Jerusalem Bible

In Thy Will, with Thy Love, we love, adore, praise and glorify you:

- ❖ In the indivisible gift of the Lord’s words in the “Lord’s Prayer”
- ❖ In the Holy Spirit who gives life to them in the hearts of believers
- ❖ In the first communities of believers who prayed the Lord’s Prayer three times a day in place of the “Eighteen Benedictions” customary in Jewish piety
- ❖ In the unshakeable faith that springs forth the hope that sustains each of the seven petitions
- ❖ In the groanings of this present age which “it does not yet appear what we shall be”
- ❖ In the eucharist and the Lord’s Prayer which looks eagerly for the Lord’s return, “until he comes”

Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2767, 2772

In Thy Will, with thy Love, we are so sorrowful, and we beg pardon:

- For all pre-meditated, malicious sins
- For all those souls who gloat and exult in sin instead of being sorry for what they do which brings them to blindness and light and grace are stifled
- For those who take their first steps to do evil deeds: vengeance, murder, betrayal, robbery and worse
