

Constancy

In Your Will and with Your Love, I desire to gather all that You have created out of so much love for mankind, from the beginning of time until the end of time; all souls, all Angels and all Creation, substituting for any and all who would refuse to join me. I bring all Your Creatures and Creation before Your Most Holy and Majestic Throne, and prostrating ourselves, we proclaim our love, adoration, praise, and honor, to glorify You profoundly, pleading through these rounds for Your Kingdom to come:

- ✚ In all the works of God which are perfect
- ✚ In this perfection that is known to be either entirely square or round that finds its place in the Celestial Jerusalem
- ✚ In the acts of souls which must be the same in all states – be they prosperous or adverse, sweet or bitter
- ✚ In the souls who enter the Heavenly Jerusalem, who will adorn the Fatherland like the stars
- ✚ In the constancy of souls who draw near to the Divine Perfection

Continuing in Thy Will and with Thy Love, we love you, we adore you, and we glorify you:

- ✚ In the virtue of constancy which puts everything in safety
- ✚ In every deprivation of Jesus that Luisa endured
- ✚ In the constancy of Luisa which squeezes out self-esteem and the natural satisfactions
- ✚ In the joy of Jesus who drinks the juice so pure and so sweet from the soul who is constant
- ✚ In the act of Jesus who looks at these souls with so much love and tenderness, feeling your pains as if they were His
- ✚ In coldness and aridity

Volume 17, January 4, 1925

In Thy Will, with Thy Love, we love you, we adore you, and we praise you:

- In the words of scripture, "Work for the Lord with untiring effort and with great earnestness of spirit."
- "Do not give up if trials come; and keep on praying."

In Thy Will, with Thy Love, we love, adore, praise and glorify you:

- ❖ In the Catechism that teaches the choice for the time and duration of prayer arises from a determined will
- ❖ In contemplative prayer that is not undertaken only when one has time but when one makes time with the Lord, with a firm determination not to give up, no matter what trials or dryness one may encounter
- ❖ In the act of entering into inner prayer, independently of the conditions of health, work, or emotional state

In Thy Will, with thy Love, we are so sorrowful, and we beg pardon:

- For all those who do not make good use of their minds
- For all souls who do not keep their eyes fixed entirely on Heaven, on the Godhead, and on Jesus
- For all souls who do not praise, love, bless and thank Jesus
- For souls who spit in the face of Jesus
- For all who offend Jesus by abusing their sense of taste and his tongue
- For those who conceive in guilt
- For those who do not care for the strictness of God's Will
