

Purgatory

In Your Will and with Your Love, I desire to gather all that You have created out of so much love for mankind, from the beginning of time until the end of time; all souls, all Angels and all Creation, substituting for any and all who would refuse to join me. I bring all Your Creatures and Creation before Your Most Holy and Majestic Throne, and prostrating ourselves, we proclaim our love, adoration, praise, and honor, to glorify You profoundly, pleading through these rounds for Your Kingdom to come:

- ✚ In the suffering of Divine Will souls
- ✚ In the pains of souls that flow in the Divine Will – on earth, in Heaven, in the Saints, and in the Angels
- ✚ In the act of the Angels and Saints who assume the attitude of watching this soul and of helping it.
- ✚ In the supplication of the Saints and Angels who implore graces in exchange for a pain so great
- ✚ In the pains of the soul who lives in the Divine Will which are the cross of everyone, which satisfies for everyone and converts into Celestial dew the furor of the Divine Justice

Continuing in Thy Will and with Thy Love, we love you, we adore you, and we glorify you:

- ✚ In the creation of man, who was made as pure and noble heavens
- ✚ In the Redemption that adorned man with the brilliant stars of Jesus' wounds to cover their ugliness and make them more beautiful
- ✚ In the act of Jesus who placed diamonds, pearls, and the precious stones of His sorrows to cover their miseries in their wounds and in their deformity
- ✚ In the act of Jesus who clothed man with such magnificence that their appearance surpassed in beauty that of their original state
- ✚ In the saying of the Church that says, "Happy fault"
- ✚ In the fault that brought the Redemption; and the Humanity that nourished with its Blood, clothed man with its very Personage and adorned man with its beauty
- ✚ In the bosom of God that is always full to nourish His children

In Thy Will, with Thy Love, we love you, we adore you, and we praise you:

- In the words of Scripture, “To you, Yahweh, I lift up my soul, O my God.”
- “Watch over my soul, rescue me; let me not be shamed: I take shelter in you.”
- “My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord and my spirit exults in God my savior; because he has looked upon his lowly handmaid...”

In Thy Will, with Thy Love, we love, adore, praise and glorify you:

- ❖ In the teaching of the Catechism that unity of the soul and body is so profound that one must consider the soul to be the “form” of the body.
- ❖ It is because of its spiritual soul that the body made of matter, in man, are not two natures united, but rather their union forms a single nature
- ❖ In every soul that is created immediately by God – it is not “produced” by the parents – and is immortal: it does not perish when it separates from the body at death, and it will be reunited with the body at the final Resurrection

In Thy Will, with thy Love, we are so sorrowful, and we beg pardon:

- For those who fail to thank God for all the ways that he sustains our bodily lives
- For all holy works and for the sacraments administered with a spirit of pride and indifference instead of a Divine Spirit
- For all the evils that have and will arise in the church
- For all intimate and secret sins with which Jesus’ dearest ones offend Him
- For those souls who stubbornly refuse to convert
