The Transfiguration and the Light of Christ

- In all souls living in the Divine Will, adorned with a Light similar to our Creator.
- In the ways souls are transformed into Light.
- In the peace in a soul, which is Light to the soul and Light to others.
- In all the Light of Jesus, which TRUTH is the foundation.

Jesus took Peter, James and John on a high mountain and while Jesus was praying, he was transfigured before them. The Bible says that "His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light." These are the same three apostles that Jesus chose and took into the garden during His agony, that could not watch with Him for one hour.
