The Lord is Kind and Merciful

LESSON 452

March 29, 2019

In the Words “The Lord is Kind and Merciful,” we can pray, approach God and contemplate His infinite goodness and accept His benefits and salvation.

Volume 12, December 6, 1919, Page 187, (whole chapter)

While Luisa prayed, Jesus’ mercy softened, and justice lost its harshness.

Volume 14, June 9, 1922, Page 71, (1st paragraph)

The Life of Jesus was nothing but mercy.

Volume 10, May 16, 1911, Page 39, (whole chapter)

Jesus is all sweetness and merciful.

Volume 17, June 11, 1925, Page 136, (whole page)

Jesus’ mercy would become weakness if it were not balanced by His Will.

Volume 14, October 3, 1922, Page 126, (whole chapter)

Mercy or justice?

Volume 12, December 18, 1918, Page 100, (whole chapter)

Prayer of the intimate soul with Jesus, for the salvation of all souls.

Volume 12, July 25, 1917, Page 21, (whole chapter)

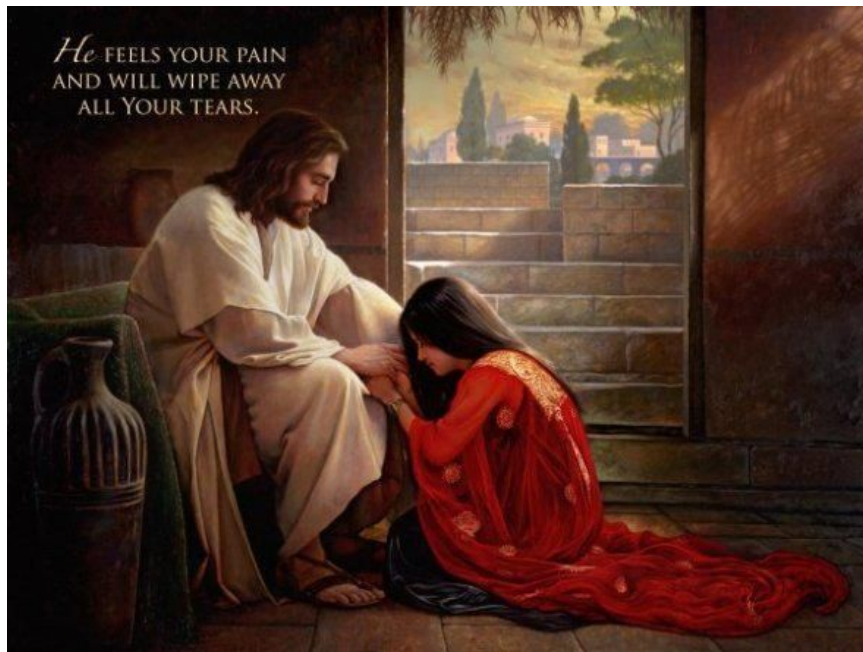

Jesus explains to Luisa how souls are by the Blood of Jesus.

Rounds

The Lord is Kind and Merciful

- In all the Acts of Jesus' Conception, birth, words, steps as they were all mercy.
- In the Blood Jesus shed, in His sufferings and pains which were all Acts of mercy.
- In the Love of Jesus, which is mercy itself.
- In Luisa who echoed Jesus' Life, and prayed and softened the mercy of God, and His justice lost its harshness, not only in present times, but also in future times.
- In prayers from souls, in which Jesus will make flow more abundantly Divine Mercy.
- In the life and mission of Jesus and all souls – for the salvation of every soul.

Jesus is Kind and Merciful to His Children.
