

Pentecost

In Your Will and with Your Love, I desire to gather all that You have created out of so much love for mankind, from the beginning of time until the end of time; all souls, all Angels and all Creation, substituting for any and all who would refuse to join me. I bring all Your Creatures and Creation before Your Most Holy and Majestic Throne, and prostrating ourselves, we proclaim our love, adoration, praise, and honor, to glorify You profoundly, pleading through these rounds for Your Kingdom to come:

- ✚ In the graces of the sacrament of Baptism, Confirmation, Penance, Holy Eucharist, Holy Orders, Matrimony, and Anointing of the sick
- ✚ In the graces given through prayer
- ✚ In the graces given to souls through their consciences
- ✚ In the graces given through the good advice and example of others
- ✚ In the graces given in the moral and dogmatic teaching of the Church
- ✚ In the graces given in the reading of Sacred Scripture, of the lives of the Saints, of the Papal Encyclicals and of other pious works
- ✚ In the graces given in the pious use of sacramentals, such as medals, scapulars and holy water
- ✚ In the graces given in the “Sacrament of the Present Moment” (page 874, Be Faithful and Attentive, 1st edition)

Works of the Holy Spirit, “Be Faithful and Attentive”

---

Continuing in Thy Will and with Thy Love, we love you, we adore you, and we glorify you:

- ✚ In every “I love you” to God
- ✚ In the words of Jesus that no “I love you” becomes lost, but all remain imprinted in God
- ✚ In the repetition of ‘I love you’ which allows God to procure the water to sprinkle and form the tree of love in the soul
- ✚ In the command of Jesus to repeat and repeat incessantly, without ever tiring yourself out our rounds of love and our acts of virtues

In Thy Will, with Thy Love, we love you, we adore you, and we praise you:

- In the responsal psalm of Pentecost: “Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth
- In the sequence, “Come, Holy Spirit, come!”
- In the antiphon, “Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.”
- In the Gospel, “If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always.”

In Thy Will, with Thy Love, we love, adore, praise and glorify you:

- ❖ In the Word of God and his Breath who are at the origin of the being and life of every creature
- ❖ In the Holy Spirit who rules, sanctifies, and animates creation, for he is God, consubstantial with the Father, and the Son
- ❖ In the Power over life of the Holy Spirit - for being God he preserves creation in the Father through the Son

In Thy Will, with thy Love, we are so sorrowful, and we beg pardon:

- For the sins of thought, especially of pride
- For those who aspire to kingdoms, dignities, and honors
- For those who find themselves in such places and conducts themselves badly, causing the ruin of peoples and the souls entrusted to them
- For seemingly good works - empty of interior spirit and even performed with evil intentions
- For those who ridicule, discredit, and profane the most holy things
