The Lowest Seat at the Table in Our Nothingness

LESSON 473

September 1, 2019

When we go to the banquet, we should take the lowest seat at the Table so the Master can invite us to the front of the Table.

Volume 12, December 6, 1917, Page 46, (whole chapter)
Souls who are nothing enter the All.

Volume 12, June 14, 1917, Page 16, (whole chapter)
The stripping of the soul – conviction of her nothingness.

Volume 10, January 11, 1912, Page 73, (whole chapter)
The nothingness of the creature is guarded within Jesus.

Volume 8, November 18, 1907, Page 21, (whole chapter)
The more a creature is reduced into nothingness the more He is filled with the All.

Volume 7, February 28, 1906, Page 4, (whole chapter)
The soul sees her nothingness.

Volume 5, March 24, 1903, Page 6, (whole page)

Rounds

The Lowest Seat at the Table

- In the Acts of souls in the Divine Will, which Jesus tells Luisa, are similar to His Acts.
- In the soul's true nothingness as she enters the All.
- In the stripping of the soul, the more the soul is stripped of herself the more Jesus clothes us with Himself.
- In all that God does in the soul, as without God we could do nothing.

When you go to a banquet take the lowest seat so the Master can call you and say “Friend come take the best seat.”
