CHRISTMAS IN EVERY ACT

LESSON 488

December 13, 2019

Volume 16, December 26, 1923, Pages 42, (whole chapter)

Jesus explains to Luisa, that it is always Christmas for those who live in His Will. As the soul enters into the Divine Will, Jesus becomes conceived in her Acts and as she goes about fulfilling or completing her Acts, Jesus develops His life and rises. Then the soul becomes conceived in Jesus and develops her life in His and rises in His same Acts. Do you see that Christmas feasts are for the ones who once a year prepares their souls? The soul then feels something of My Birth that is new in her. For the one who does My Will it is always Christmas as I am born in each of her Acts. For whoever lives in My Will, My Birth, My Life, My Death, My Resurrection are a continuous and never-interrupted Act. (Paraphrased from Volume 16)

Volume 14, October 19, 1922, Page 133, (whole chapter)

The soul unites her Acts with Jesus' single, continuous Act.
