5:00 AM Hour of the Passion

LESSON 36

July 9, 2010

PASSION – 5:00 AM HOUR – JESUS IN PRISON

- (a) Jesus is in prison for 3 hours, alone in pitch darkness, horribly bound.
- (b) Jesus repairs for all the first fruits of the day in thoughts and words that are not offered for the GLORIFY THE FATHER.
- (c) The last hour in prison dawn broke thru the cracks and light entered.

VOLUME REFERENCES

- (a) Volume 13, October 29, 1921, Page 29 (whole chapter)

What was the significance of 3 hours in prison?

Jesus wanted to restore the 3 epochs of the world, the law of nature, the written law, and the law of Grace.

Jesus wanted to restore the 3 stages of man, childhood, youth and old age.

Jesus wanted to restore man when he sins, through passion, will and obstinacy.

What was the significance of the darkness?

The pitch darkness was the sin produced in man. Jesus suffered this so He can give us light.

Jesus explains another meaning to prison and the darkness.

His imprisonment in Tabernacles and His solitude with no one to love Him.

Jesus feels the touch of unworthy tongues, the stench and corrupt hands in the Sacred Host. (Paraphrased from Volume 13)

Volume 12, December 4, 1928 (whole chapter)

What was the significance of the prison of Jesus in His Passion?

To free creatures from the prison of sin.

Volume 7, November 9, 1906, Page 67 (1st and 2nd paragraph)

Souls who meditate on the Passion clean Jesus up.

(b) Volume 14, May 27, 1922, Page 63, (whole chapter)

The prevenient act – the importance of it at the break of dawn.

(c)Volume 13, October 29, 1921, page 30 (1st paragraph)

What does the light symbolize?

It symbolizes what happens to man when he is tired of the night of sin and now desires to receive Grace, like the dawn that surrounds him and calls him back to the Divine Order of things. (Paraphrased from Volume 13)

Volume 13, November 22, 1921, Page 39 (1st and 2nd paragraph)

Acts done in the Divine Will are like daylight for Jesus.

(Paraphrased from Volume 13)
