May I enter into the Eternal, Divine Order of God, to place my absolute nothingness in the Heart of the Most Holy Trinity, to give to my Father the joy of fulfilling the purpose of my existence by doing all the acts of my life through the Immaculate Heart of my Mother, and in the Divine Will of God. And in this same manner, may I breathe, pray, eat, live, act, work, walk, and sleep.

May my soul be devoid of any longings, wants, or desires, except for those of my beloved Divine Will, and may You do with me whatever You want or desire! All I ask is that You bind me to Your Most Holy Will so intimately that I may never swerve from carrying out what I know to be Your good pleasure, and that I remain so docile to the movements of Your Divine Will that You never perceive even a breath of resistance in my soul to Your desires for me!

Come Divine Will with all the Angels and Saints, especially my Sweet Mother, to touch my forehead to imprint on it the Holy Spirit and infuse in me the Light, so I can understand the truths and goods that are in these writings and prayers!

Amen!
